Chapter 423: The Supreme Evolution of Sung Jin-Woo

The Birth of The Most Supreme Deity

As Sung Jin-Woo's Godverse reached its peak of perfection, he underwent a divine transformation, ascending to a form beyond comprehension. His new appearance reflected his unmatched power and authority over existence itself.

His New Form

Intangible and Translucent: His body shimmered like a divine mirage, ethereal and untouchable by any physical or metaphysical force.

Golden Divine Jewels:

Chest: The core jewel, radiating boundless divine energy.

Stomach: The jewel of balance, sustaining the harmony of the Godverse.

Forehead (Three): Representing omniscience, omnipotence, and omnipresence.

Hand Palms (Six): New jewels embedded in each palm of his now six arms, capable of creating, destroying, and reshaping reality.

Sole Feet (Two): Empowering his dominion over all planes of existence, ensuring stability and unyielding presence.

Skin: His whitish silver skin emitted a soft, divine glow, symbolizing purity and perfection.

Eyes: Glowing yellow-golden, embodying the light of absolute knowledge and divine justice.

The Asura-Like Appearance

From his back grew four additional arms, making him a six-armed deity. Each hand held untold power, with their own golden divine jewel embedded in their palms. Despite this Asura-like form, his face remained singular, reflecting his eternal unity and singular authority over all creation.

He was now known as The Most Supreme Deity, the ultimate and undeniable Absolute One.

The Reaction Across Existence

When Sung Jin-Woo's transformation was complete, the entire Godverse trembled with divine resonance. The denizens of all realms, from angels to mortals, instinctively bowed in reverence.

Archangels and Dark Archangels: Prostrated themselves in awe of their creator's new form, their voices echoing his praises.

The Divine Triad: Ashborn and Sung Su-Ho recognized his transcendence, acknowledging his authority as the pinnacle of existence.

The Realms Beyond the Omniverse: Entities and gods from the void, nexus, and abyss shuddered at the presence of the Absolute One. Even the most ancient beings understood they could never challenge his supremacy.

Sung Jin-Woo's Declaration

Standing at the center of the Godverse, Sung Jin-Woo spoke, his voice resonating through all realms, dimensions, and timelines.

"I am the Absolute One. I am the Most Supreme Deity. From this moment, my will is eternal law, and my presence shall sustain all that exists and beyond."

His words carried unimaginable power, reshaping the fabric of existence itself. Laws of nature, time, and space aligned to his will, ensuring that the Godverse remained inviolable.

The Powers of The Absolute One

1. Creation and Destruction:
With a thought, Sung Jin-Woo could create entire multiverses or erase them without leaving a trace.

2. Transcendence of Form:
His new intangible and translucent body made him immune to any attack, rendering him untouchable and invincible.

3. Divine Knowledge:
His glowing eyes saw all, from the past to the future, from the smallest detail to the grandest designs of reality.

4. Six Arms of Power:
Each arm wielded unimaginable strength, capable of performing separate divine tasks simultaneously.

5. Golden Divine Jewels:
The golden divine jewels acted as conduits for his infinite energy, allowing him to manipulate every aspect of existence.

The Era of Supreme Divinity

With his ascension complete, the Godverse entered an era of unparalleled peace and stability.

Angels and Dark Angels: Took their positions as guardians and messengers, spreading Sung Jin-Woo’s divine will across all realms.

The God Tree: Flourished, producing even more godly creatures to serve the Absolute One.

The Denizens of the Multiverse: Thrived under the perfect order established by Sung Jin-Woo, free from chaos and suffering.

Sung Jin-Woo’s transformation marked the beginning of an eternal era where his authority reigned supreme, and no force, internal or external, could challenge the Most Supreme Deity.
